SERVICE MEN

Pvt. Henry Ikemoto writes from Italy: "The chapel services here are held Sunday mornings...The sermons are good. Our services are held our-of-doors in the hot sun...Please pray that God will speak through me in some small way that I may plant the seed in good ground...Hello to the HAPPINESS HOUR..."ASN 38635525. Anti-Tank Co., 442nd Inf. Regt., A.P.O. 464, 7P.M. N.Y.C. His brother Ted Ikemoto was here last week on furlough from Fort Benning, Ga.

Pvt. Harold Noguchi is here from Fort Snelling...Central compounding room...The work is enjoyable and am brushing up on my practice.

Enjoying his pharmaceutical work in the compounding department is Pfc. Fred Koyama, Med. Dept. S.C.U. 1915, Sec. 4, Madigan Gen. Hospital, Fort, Lewis, Washington.

A line to Sgt. Davis Hirahara, Davis Gen. Hospital, Menlo Park, California will be appreciated. His wife, Chizuko and child are now at 1102 E. Spruce St., Seattle, Washington

THANKS

Our sincere appreciation to Rev. and Mrs. K. Harper Sakaua for their generous contribution.

PERSONALS

Ruth and Toyo Hase are busy farmettes at Route 2, Box 337, Lemoore, California. Akemi Betty Kodama and Ruby Nakagawa of the Junior HAPPINESS HOUR group are leaving for Omaha, Nebraska this week. Akemi has a remarkable attendance record for the Wednesday evening meetings-- orchid to her! Former Nisei treasurer, Ren Kimura was recently a visitor from North Chile, N.Y. He returned last Wednesday to resume summer school at Roberts Junior College. His brother Shigeru was here from Chicago, also. Nisei Board Chmn., Himi Hashimoto is confined to the local hospital.

Miss Lola Lauhon transferred to Tululake. Miss Roba Hayes made a one-day visit. "Trying our best not to get lost in this big city," postcarded Yuri Nakamichi from Chicago. Rinko Shimazaki is here from the Windy City. Michimasa Kinoshita is back from Cleveland to relocate his sister. Tokio Inouye is back at Chicago's International House after brief visit with her family.

"Ruth and I are here in Mexico City studying at the National University. We are living at the home of one of my former Mexican classmates...Mexico City is wonderful even though the buildings are fairly old and different from ours. Mexicans are very friendly and sympathetic...There are no racial feelings...The weather here is extremely cool since the city is situated on an altitude of over 7,000 feet...Ruth is taking up mostly art courses... Please extend my regards to all." Lois Asawa, San Pedro de Los Pinos, Avenida 1, #65, Mexico, D.F.

Hiroshi and Yuri Uyehara have rented a home at 115 Edgemont Rd., Essington, Penn. to welcome their parents who relocated last Wed. T-5 Isamu Uyehara was a recent visitor from Ft. Snelling.

On July 12, the popular C.Y.F. members attended the sub-district meeting which was held in Dermott. The group enjoyed lively songfest, devotional and social hour. Everyone present enjoyed the evening fellowship.
